OFFICIAL COMMENTS: Officials and Jockeys meeting occurred as scheduled. There was discussion amongst the Stewards and others concerning the acceptance of the entries of the two 12-year-old maidens with spotty flat race records

Race 2: Imperious pulled up at the seventh. This horse was outdistanced from the start and tired. Montauk Man pulled up before the last, tired

Race 3: Crazy Bernice pulled up after the sixth fence which she jumped poorly. The rider thought that she had broken down. (She did not). Lakota fell heavily at the 7th fence when in tight. Virginia Envy fell at the 8th fence. This was horse was tired. Jockeys Crimin and Keating were cleared to ride. It is noted that Jockey Keating took off his mount in the last due to extreme soreness.

All horses that fell or pulled up were examined by the track vet and were cleared to ship home.

Rug Howard, Presiding Steward
